

Boston University Law 3L Abigail Mendez Joins A&K as Fall Extern

Abigail Mendez, a 3L from Boston University School of Law, is the fall extern at Anderson & Kreiger this year. Her prior experience includes an internship at the Airport Division in the San Francisco City Attorney's Office, where she worked on everything from airport law to land use to project financing.

In law school, she participated in a year-long Civil Litigation Clinic, and is currently an article editor for her school's Public Interest Law Journal. Abigail received her Bachelor's degree in International Relations from Tufts University, where she explored topics such as negotiation and endangered species smuggling. She also spent a year studying abroad in Kunming, China. Abigail loves to dance, is an avid reader, and can bake pretty delicious biscotti.
