

Five Anderson & Kreiger LLP Attorneys to Participate in Discovering Justice's Mock Trial Program

Former U.S Attorney Carmen Ortiz, Austin Anderson, David Lyons, Christina Marshall and Nina Pickering-Cook will all be volunteering their time this fall to prepare Nativity Preparatory School of Boston students to present their case in Discovering Justice's Mock Trial Program. The program runs for 11 weeks after school. With the support of Anderson & Kreiger volunteer attorneys, Nativity Prep students will be given the extraordinary opportunity to learn how to conduct legal analysis of a case and then work with attorneys to prepare and present their case before federal or state judges as well as juries made up of community members.
