

Colin Van Dyke Elected to the Anderson & Kreiger LLP Partnership

Colin Van Dyke was elected to the partnership at Anderson & Kreiger LLP effective January 1, 2019. “Colin has made significant contributions to this firm since he joined in 2017. He is committed to his clients and to his colleagues. We are proud to have him as our partner,” said David Mackey, Managing Partner.

Clients seek Colin’s advice on environmental matters locally and nationally, including site redevelopment and remediation, permitting and enforcement, and litigation. Clients also seek his guidance on real estate transactions and on the environmental aspects of corporate transactions. In addition, Colin regularly provides pro bono services in environmental and civil rights cases.

Colin is Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of Zoo New England, a member of the Board of Directors of the Lawyers for Civil Rights, and Vice Chair for the Mass Bays National Estuary Program. He is an active member of several American Bar Association and Boston Bar Association committees.
