

TJ Roskelley to present at Annual AAAE Finance & Administration Conference

Image by Gerhard Gellinger from Pixabay

Anderson & Kreiger is pleased to participate in the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE) Annual Finance and Administration Conference on February 11th. The conference brings together airport executives and other senior leaders from the airport finance world to discuss strategies and new ways of thinking in order to fulfill core airport management roles while remaining fiscally effective. TJ's presentation will focus on "Airport Law and Federal Regulatory Overview – Real World Implications."