Anderson & Kreiger LLP Elects Christina Marshall to the Partnership

Anderson & Kreiger LLP is pleased to announce that Christina S. Marshall will become a partner of the Firm on January 1, 2021.

Christina's litigation practice focuses on the representation of public and private sector clients, including airports, state agencies, and local municipalities, in state and federal courts and in regulatory and administrative matters locally and nationally. Christina advises her clients on a range of governance, compliance and environmental matters. Clients also seek Christina's guidance on drafting state and local legislation.

"Christina is a talented advocate and committed to her clients, but similarly committed to the life of this firm. We know that she will be an outstanding addition to the partnership," said David Mackey, Managing Partner.

Christina is a frequent speaker at local and national conferences, including annual meetings of Airports Council International-NA and the Massachusetts Airport Managers Association, and CLEs and other events for the Boston Bar Association. She has been recognized by the Best Lawyers in America in Commercial Litigation for the past two years and has been named a Rising Star by Super Lawyers since 2017.
