

Anderson & Kreiger is committed to the health and safety of our employees and any person who enters our office space.

We have implemented a number of measures to allow our offices to reopen in a safe and controlled manner, consistent with federal, state, and local requirements. These measures include physical distancing, cleaning and sanitation protocols, and mandatory masks, as well as mandatory vaccinations for all employees. Our primary goal is to ensure our safeguards against COVID-19 remain rigorous.