

Anderson & Kreiger Welcomes Kuong C. Ly to the Firm

Anderson & Kreiger is pleased to announce that Kuong C. Ly has joined the firm as an Associate. Immediately prior, he worked in the real estate group of a Boston area firm focusing his practice on advising clients on land use and permitting matters.

Kuong brings to A&K years of legal experience in both the private and sectors. Before entering private practice, Kuong spent several years clerking on both state and federal courts. He served as a law clerk to the Honorable Rosemary S. Pooler of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, the Honorable Miranda M. Du of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, and the Honorable Michael D. Vhay of the Massachusetts Land Court.

A Boston area native, Kuong began his legal career as a legal aid attorney at Northeast Legal Aid in Massachusetts. There, he spearheaded the organization's efforts to provide quality legal representation to the Cambodian American community.

"We're very excited that Kuong chose to join us at A&K. He will be a valuable asset to the fabric of the firm and a great resource to our clients," said Colin Van Dyke, Managing Partner.
