

Anderson & Kreiger Environmental & Insurance Law Practices and Individual Attorneys Ranked in Chambers USA 2024

Two Anderson & Kreiger Law Practice groups were recognized in the 2024 Chambers USA rankings.

In addition, five attorneys were recognized individually. Environmental attorneys, Arthur Kreiger, Colin Van Dyke and Jessica Wall and Insurance attorneys Steven Schreckinger Tamara Wolfson.

Chambers prides itself on having the best-in-class research teams of over 200 experienced individuals who assess lawyers and law firms across the USA, conducting thousands of one-on-one interviews per year with in-house counsel and third-party experts. They state, "By providing independent and impartial intelligence and market insight, Chambers supports and enables decision makers, from General Counsel at global blue-chip firms through to local businesses, to secure the talent that's right for them, while saving time and mitigating risk. Our rankings include the most prestigious US law firms."

A&K extends its sincere congratulations to our ranked practice groups and attorneys on this accomplishment.

To read more on their selection process and methodology click here.