

Charles Fischette Joins Anderson & Kreiger

BOSTON, November 11, 2024 –Anderson & Kreiger LLP announces that Charles Fischette has joined the firm as Counsel.

Charles brings to Anderson & Kreiger deep experience in insurance coverage, complex litigation, and appellate law. Charles began his legal career in Washington, D.C. at a multinational firm litigating insurance coverage matters involving asbestos and environmental liabilities, first-party property coverage, directors and officers liability coverage, and professional and hospital liability coverage.

Charles joins A&K from CNA in Boston, where he was a member of the claims counsel group and specialized in coverage issues concerning environmental, medical professional liability, product liability, and mass tort claims. He also served as a litigation attorney at the RiverStone Group in Manchester, NH, providing advice on long-tail coverage matters and overseeing a substantial litigation portfolio.

Charles has a law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he served as Articles Editor for the Virginia Law Review, and a bachelor's degree from Swarthmore College. After law school, Charles served as a law clerk to Chief Judge John M. Walker, Jr. on the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Insurance practice Partner Tamara S. Wolfson said, "We are delighted that Charles has decided to join Anderson & Kreiger. His track record of successfully tackling the most complex insurance matters and his unique combination of experience and practical guidance on behalf of both policyholders and insurers will be of enormous benefit to our clients."

"I'm excited to join A&K and work with a talented group of lawyers," said Fischette. "I want to thank the firm for being so welcoming. I look forward to joining the first-rate insurance and litigation practice the firm has built."
